

MISSION STATEMENT: Because wild horses of the Badlands hold a unique place in the history and settlement of North Dakota, the North Dakota Badlands Horse Registry was established to register, promote, appreciate, and preserve the wild horses of Theodore Roosevelt National Park.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR NDBH BOARD MEMBERS

- I will recognize the worth of each person, treating others with respect and courtesy and nurturing relationships with other board members.
- I will actively listen to others to promote successful communication within NDBH and with others outside of NDBH.
- I will recognize the skills and knowledge that others have to offer and will support my coworkers on this board and others with whom I am asked to associate.
- I will support opportunities to learn, grow, and teach, taking leadership on this board and using my skills for the greater good.
- When I have a conflict with someone I will send them a private message or call them to discuss and settle our differences.
- I will embrace diversity in all its forms.
- I will ask for assistance when needed and listen to advice, admitting mistakes and taking corrective action.
- I will speak positively about NDBH even when I may not agree with all decisions.
- I will be familiar with and abide by the Bylaws of NDBH and respect its mission.
- I will be familiar with and work within the structure of NDBH for meetings and the conducting of business.
- I will abide by this code and the confidentiality statement I have signed.
- I will respect the relationship NDBH has with TRNP and other organizations.
- I will speak respectfully and work collaboratively with TRNP, their staff, other advocates, and anyone I associate with as a board member.
- I understand that as a member of the NDBH board, I represent NDBH to the public.
